

I believe it is about time we upgrade the nightly news time slot. It should be required to move to a later time in the evening. This would allow time for young children to be put to bed and keep the viewpoints of the media from influencing the children.